Description

This booklet is not an in-depth encyclopaedia covering all aspects of Peer Education and Cultural Diversity, but it can be used as an essential guide of tips and tricks to get you moving on your own peer projects. As part of the strategy for reaching the needs of young people, SALTO Cultural Diversity and the Austrian National Agency joined forces to plan the PiPo (Peering in Peering out) training course. The idea was to bring together young people from across Europe to increase their skills and competencies to enable them to deal with Cultural Diversity issues in their projects and work with other young people in their localities.
